

Threat Identification & Risk Intelligence

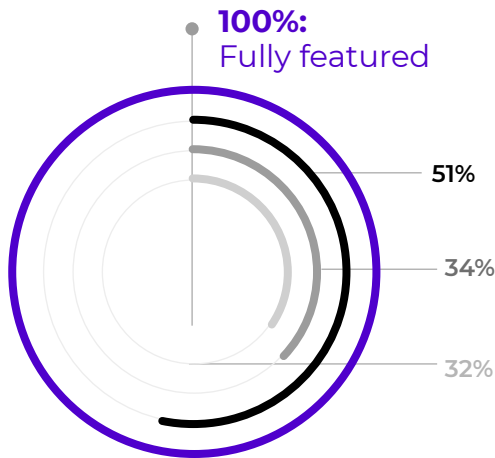

WITH ASYMMETRIC THREATS ON THE RISE, ENSURING THE SAFETY AND SECURITY OF YOUR ASSETS HAS NEVER BEEN MORE IMPORTANT.

Duty of Care necessitates that you as an employer ensure your employees and executives are safe at work while traveling domestically and globally and while at home.

The Kinetic Global Threat Identification and Risk Intelligence module is a robust solution to this need, and offers unparalleled safety features entrusted by dignitaries, overseas workforces, Government Agencies, NGO's, Fortune500 corporations and International organizations.

Kinetic Global Threat Identification and Risk Intelligence uses a powerful combination of artificial intelligence, machine learning, and a team of full-time security analysts to quickly make actionable threat insights available to customers.

The AI and Machine Learning used by Kinetic sorts over 65+ categories of threats into meaningful feeds managed by our analysts. This ensures validated and verified intelligence is provided just seconds after exposure occurs in order to reduce incident response time.
